EMERGENCY MEDICAL SCIENCE A45340B (AAS Bridging Degree)

2022-2023

The Emergency Medical Science Bridging curriculum is designed for career advancement for currently credentialed paramedics who are interested in earning their associate's degree.

The course of study provides the student an opportunity to earn their associates in applied science degree in Emergency Medical Science while offering the flexibility to continue working. All required courses can be completed online. Seated course options are also available based on student need.

Because the program is primarily taught through an online format, the program requires access to high speed internet and a computer.

Applications are accepted on a continual basis for fall, spring and summer under the following conditions, for the Emergency Medical Science Bridging (EMS) program:

- EMS Program Chair must be notified of credential status when student applies. Program chair will then verify NCOEMS and/or NREMT Paramedic certifications through appropriate databases.
- Once the EMS Program Chair verifies the Paramedic credential, a request for transfer equivalency for 45 credit hours will be made. The paramedic credential must remain active and valid for the duration of the program.

ADMISSION PROCESS

Committee on Accreditation of Educational Programs for the Emergency Medical Services Professions: The Carteret Community College Paramedic program has been issued a Letter of Review by the Committee on Accreditation of Educational Programs for the Emergency Medical Services Professions (CoAEMSP Executive Office). This letter is NOT a CAAHEP accreditation status, it is a status signifying that a program seeking initial accreditation has demonstrated sufficient compliance with the accreditation Standards through the Letter of Review Self Study Report (LSSR) and other documentation. Letter of Review is recognized by the National Registry of Emergency Medical Technicians (NREMT) for eligibility to take the NREMT's Paramedic credentialing examination(s). However, it is NOT a guarantee of eventual accreditation.
