Answer the following questions about yourself and your spouse, if you are an independent student, or yourself and your parents, if you are a dependent student. Use the chart below to indicate your responses.

- 1) As of today, what is your (and spouse's) or your and your parents' total current balance of cash, savings, and checking accounts? Do not include student financial aid.
- 2) As of today, what is the net worth of your (and spouse's) or your and your parents' investments, including real estate (but not the home you live in)? Investments include: 529 college savings plans, the refund value of 529 prepaid tuition plans, Coverdell savings accounts, installment and land sale contracts (including mortgages held), trust funds, UGMA and UTMA accounts, mutual funds, money market funds and certificates of deposit, stocks, stock options, bonds, other securities, commodities. The FAFSA asks for net worth of investments, which is their total current market value minus their associated debts. If the net worth is negative, enter a zero.
- 3) As of today, what is the net worth of your (and spouse's) or your and your parents' current businesses and/or investment farms? Do not include a family farm that you (your spouse and/or your parents) live on and operate or a family-owned and controlled small business of less than 100 employees. The current net worth is reported for land, buildings, machinery, equipment, and inventory. The current market value is reduced by the debt owed on it to determine net worth. Business or farm debt means only those debts for which the business or investment farm was used as collateral.
